

Everyone can shape
our economy,

except you.

We buy electronics, vehicles, entertainment products, you name it. All of that is part of the economic system. Shouldn't the most powerful consumer demographic in the country have a say in the way it works? Right now all you are is a dollar sign. Be the exception, engage our political system >> exceptyou.org